Grand Hotel Les Trois Rois garners award for Europe's most beautiful hotel terrace

Press Release

Basel, 25 October 2018 – Last week the Grand Hotel Les Trois Rois was honoured with a special award at Château Ferrières-en-Brie just outside Paris: the Prix Villégiature for Europe's most beautiful city hotel terrace (Meilleure terrasse de ville d'un hôtel en Europe). The hotel terrace overlooking the Rhine was designed by Enzo Enea, one of Europe's foremost landscape architects, and it prevailed over such serious contenders such as Le Raphaël in Paris and the Four Seasons Hotel at the Bosphorus in Istanbul. As a delighted Tanja Wegmann, General Manager, explained at the award ceremony in Paris, 'it is an invaluable acknowledgement of the efforts made every day by the team at Les Trois Rois to offer our guests only the very best in all areas'. The Basel team together with Livia Leu, Switzerland's Ambassador to France and daughter of Swiss hotel legend Hans Leu, stepped up to accept the highly coveted award.

The Prix Villégiature jury is comprised of 22 distinguished journalists and correspondents from all over the world. Awards in all manner of categories have been presented to the most beautiful hotels in Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Middle East since 2003. In fact, the Grand Hotel Les Trois Rois already picked up one of these sought-after awards back in 2015, with Peter Knogl of the Cheval Blanc collecting the award for 'Best Hotel Restaurant in Europe'.

The Grand Hotel Les Trois Rois is located right on the banks of the Rhine, in the heart of Basel's delightful city centre. The Basel Exhibition Centre, museums and shops are all within walking distance. The historic hotel is one of the oldest city hotels in Europe and has 101 rooms and suites, not to mention its very own Fleurs des Rois flower boutique. Its motto of 'rich in history, young at heart' combines a rich history with a unique culture of hospitality and a contemporary infrastructure. Culinary highlights include the Restaurant Cheval Blanc by Peter Knogl (3 Michelin stars and 19 GaultMillau points), the Brasserie Les Trois Rois (14 GaultMillau points), the Italian Restaurant Chez Donati (13 GaultMillau points), the Bar Les Trois Rois, and the Salon du Cigare. Its recently award-winning Rhine terrace designed by Enzo Enea is unique and boasts exceptional panoramic views.
