Awards for Les Trois Rois

The Grand Hotel picks up yet more awards for the tremendous achievements of its staff.

Les Trois Rois commended by Condé Nast readers

Switzerland's elite hotels have once again been rated by the readers of Condé Nast Traveler, with the Grand Hotel Les Trois Rois voted among the best fifteen in the category 'Top Hotels in Switzerland'.

Condé Nast Traveler is the leading travel magazine in the UK and the US. Every year just under half a million readers get to vote on the locations they visited over the past twelve months. The ratings include not just cities, islands and hotels, but also airlines and cruise ships. To find out more, go to www.cntraveler.com/rca

A double win at the Swiss Championships of the Swiss Barkeeper Union

Head bartender Adriano Volpe swayed the distinguished jury of the 2018 Swiss Cocktail Championships in no fewer than two categories. In the category 'Before Dinner Cocktail' he won with his 'Golden Beggi', a vodka-based creation enhanced with gold powder and harmoniously blended with champagne. Volpe also claimed top spot with his non-alcoholic 'Two Foxes' cocktail in the 'Mocktail' category. This subtly spicy creation aimed at a wider clientele is at first tantalisingly tart on the taste buds due to the lime juice, then distinctly herbal. With a pureed raspberry base the mocktail is first enhanced with apple pie syrup and then the juice of oranges, passion fruit, and maracuya.

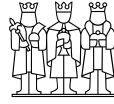

The Grand Hotel Les Trois Rois is located right on the banks of the Rhine, in the heart of Basel's delightful city centre. The Basel Exhibition Centre, museums and shops are all within walking distance. The historic hotel is one of the oldest city hotels in Europe and has 101 rooms and suites, not to mention its very own Fleurs des Rois flower boutique. Its motto of 'rich in history, young at heart' combines a rich history with a unique culture of hospitality and a contemporary infrastructure. Culinary highlights include the Restaurant Cheval Blanc by Peter Knogl (3 Michelin stars and 19 GaultMillau points), the Brasserie Les Trois Rois (14 GaultMillau points), the Italian Restaurant Chez Donati (13 GaultMillau points), the Bar Les Trois Rois, and the Salon du Cigare. Its recently award-winning Rhine terrace designed by Enzo Enea is unique and boasts exceptional panoramic views.
